"The Pouting Prophet"
 Jonah 4

1. Disturbing _____

2. The _____ Lesson

3. The _____ Question

We are looking at the fourth and final chapter of Jonah today. I have been preaching a series of messages from this wonderful book. I have been so encouraged the last few weeks as many of you have shared with me how God has used this series to speak to you. I believe the reason is that all of us can see a little bit of Jonah in ourselves. This short book is packed full of life lessons as we learn about God, His wrath, His love and mercy, and His plan to reach the world using us as His hands and feet. If you've missed a message or would like to hear one again, feel free to visit our website to view them or call the church office to order a DVD copy.

We've seen many sides to Jonah. We've seen him run from God, run to God, run for God and today he runs into God. We've seen him as the prodigal prophet, praying prophet, preaching prophet and today as the pouting prophet. Let us worship together today and fix our attention on God. As we do, He will once again pierce our hearts as He reveals His heart to us today.

In reverence to God and out of respect for others, we request you turn off or silence all electronic devices. Thank you!

On behalf of the Maze & Nowak family, we would like to thank you all for your prayers and encouragement throughout the journey of Oneal's sickness and passing. Romans 12:15 reminds us to rejoice with those who rejoice; and mourn with those who mourn, and that is exactly what this faith family has done. Thank you for being the hands and feet of Christ when our family needed it the most. We rejoice in the eternal Hope that Oneal is now experiencing in its fullest.

Sincerely,
Sharon, Corey (Kristi), and
Somer (Joel)
